W. P. WALTON.

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY

Stock water is extremely scarce. The corn crop will be very light. Grasshoppers completely devoured all that no amount of rain will revive it before next spring.

The deputy sheriff has been, to use a sheriff's expression, "as busy as the devil in a gale of wind," among us for some days, but has borne himself with a quiet dignity highly praiseworthy.

The Misses Bickman and Thompson and Misses Thompson and Ford will open their school at Christian College, Hustonville, Monday, September 5th. Through instruction for male and female intended boarding. Low rates.

Rev. Joe A. Munday in Lancaster.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL:

Since my arrival in Kentucky one year since, I have heard much of Lancaster, the people who reside here and the business establishments and fine horses and "red liquor" and brave men. Every report was favorable. So delighted was I with what I heard that I resolved to visit the city in the interest of my work. This resolution has been carried into effect. I am here, comfortably seated away at the Miller Hotel, the best hotel at which I have stopped for sometime. Col. W. S. Miller, the proprietor, is a gentleman and knows how to keep a hotel. This is the slogan of all who stop with him. Last Sunday morning, week I preached for Rev. S. H. Humphreys, the pastor of the Baptist church. Brother Humphreys and I were classed in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. A. I found him then so he is now, a fine preacher and a Christian gentleman. Last Sunday night we began a meeting in the court house instead of the church, because of its capacity. I have preached every night since. What I have heard of Lancaster is not an exaggeration. It's a fine town, a live, wide awake town. The people are refined and cultivated. We do not often see the high degree of refinement and culture as is exhibited in the people of Lancaster. Pretty women! "Hush man, don't talk!" Lancaster beats the world for them and they dress with so much taste. There are a number of fine business houses, of which the town can truly boast. All the horses I have seen look well, except one. He looks very much "out of shape." He is not, however, said to be a Kentucky horse, but came from Georgia and was sold to death during the prohibition campaign. He was, eh? Well, he could not have had the flesh knocked off him in a better cause. Whenever old Georgia starts a horse in the prohibition ring, he comes out whole and no top every time, if he does look a little thin. Georgia may run a horse until he becomes thin, but she will never run her democratic party by trying to run a prohibition Fox into the gubernatorial chair in opposition to the democratic nominee.

As to "red liquor" and brave men, both are here. There is still living one Parson, but will die on the 28th of this month. This, I do not believe, will grieve the citizens, for there is not much liquor consumed. I have not seen a drunk man. Lancaster can boast of quinine from a moral standpoint. She has, I believe, some brave men, not made so by whisky, like some, but actuated by principle. They are quiet and peaceable, but if principle was involved they would come in the front. I am in love with the place. I am "stuck on it" yes, more than this, I am "stuck" in it, but will not stick long, for I hear the good people are fixing to purge us with—well, give the other. Good luck to you!

Yours,

JOE A. MUNDAY

The Russell Vote.

To the Editor of the Interior Journal:

JAMESTOWN, Aug. 15.—Died, August 11, Minnie, infant daughter of James and Jessie Sambrook. August 13th, George Sambrook in his 57th year. The morning and evening of life have kissed each other on the eternal shore. M. M. ALLIN.

Oscar Harvey, the defaulter department clerk at Washington, is now serving his time in the Albany penitentiary with one West, a negro convict, formerly an interior or department clerk, for his base.

John H. Jackson, an educated colored man, a native of Kentucky, but at present principal of a graded school in Kansas City, has been elected principal of the colored State Normal School, located at Frankfort.

Parry, the wife-murderer, was hanged at Prince George county, Va., Friday, while he was bleeding to death from a self-inflicted wound. He had gotten hold of a horse spring and sharpening it stuck it into an artery.

If the lesson of the late election are heeded Kentucky will give 50,000 majority for Cleveland. Otherwise the democrats will have to buckle on their armor and fight for a majority of any figure.—[Covington Commonwealth.]

It is reported that Winchester rifles are being shipped to citizens of Taylor county. Marshal Gross has advertised the sale of $50,000 worth of property to satisfy a judgment of $14,000. Marshal Hunter says he is going there to bid in the property for the bondholders and don't propose to be frightened away.

A peculiar and incident of the Chatworth wreck is related of a gentleman, accompanied by wife and child. The rescuers reached the point where he was pinned down by a car seat. He asked them to save his wife first. The poor woman, fatally hurt, was tenderly carried out, then the body of the child and next the husband and father, both his legs crushed. Dragging himself to the side of his wife and child, he felt their cold, dead faces in the darkness, fell back with a moan and saying he had nothing now to live for, pulled a revolver from his pocket and sent a bullet through his brain.

The best remedy for chicken cholera ever introduced here is Gant's Chicken Cholera Cure. Try it. Sold by all druggists. 2t Nineteen soldiers were killed by the explosion of a shell in a fort near Stockholm, Sweden.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Watermelons by the wagon load are sold on our streets daily.

—Considerable preparations are being made for our Fair, to be held September 8 and 9.

—Judge Boyd left Saturday for Pineville, where his court convened Monday. Warring factions are prevalent in this county and trouble is feared, but Judge Boyd has the nerve to stay with them.

—The young people were given a pleasant social party by Misses Lou and Maude Jackson Saturday night. Besides our own ladies and beau, Winchester, Kirkville, East Bernstadt and Barboursville were represented.

—Is there a public spirited man in this town who will inaugurate a movement looking to the building of a good iron fence around court house square. Nothing would more improve the appearance of the place, and we hope to see it done at an early day.

—Mr. William Lusk, a prominent and respected citizen of the Etowah neighborhood, died while visiting his son, Dr. Lusk, at Bates, last week. Mr. Lusk was about 60 years of age and had been in bad health for some two years. His remains were brought here for interment Saturday.

—Miss Maude Jackson has returned from a pleasant visit to Barboursville. She was accompanied home by Miss Lillie Bards, of Virginia, and Miss Edna Timmer, of Barboursville. Miss Nellie Pitman, of Manchester, passed through Saturday, en route to her father's, at Ash Grove, Missouri. W. S. Jackson has gone to Louisville. Master Arthur Givens, Boston, the handsome and intelligent 7 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boston, Pittsburgh, was visiting in this city Friday. Jim Segarance was here during the week. Mrs. J. C. Bell has gone to Lanesville in answer to intelligence that her mother was very ill.

—Our stock is now full and complete. A splendid line of clothing, dry goods in abundance. Boots and shoes, hats and caps, a very large assortment. Hardware and table cutlery, harness and saddlery, farming implements, etc. The largest and best lot of notions in town. In fact anything wanted in the mercantile line. We desire the trade of the teachers. Come and see us. We will make it to your advantage.

—Mr. Thompson & Bro.

—Judge Morrow and wife went home Saturday. The Judge returns here Tuesday. Mr. L. A. Stewart and wife, of DeLand, Fla., are at Mr. Wm. Stewart's. Wm. M. Weber, of Knoxville, is here with his family. Jack Baker, the man shot by Steve Prewitt on election day, is walking about and is out of danger. Sam Myers is visiting his cousin T. S. Miller, near Hyattsville, Garrard county. T. N. Roberts is here. Teacher J. N. Brown resumed his school Monday after a week's illness. Wm. Myers had a congenital chill Friday night.

—Elijah Ahrey, living at the head of Brush Creek, made application before Circuit Court one day last week to have one of his children provided for as a county charge, showing the proper evidence that the child was entitled to such under the law. During the examination Judge Morrow asked Mr. A. how many children he had. The answer was, 20. The Judge at once informed him that it was needless to take further testimony in the case, that his petition would be granted as it should be to any man who had so nobly fulfilled that part of the scripture directing man to "Multiply and replenish the earth."

—Mr. George Sambrook, who has been sick for the last four months with a complication of diseases, died at Livingston, his home, Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. He had been taken to Louisville a short time since with the hope of his being benefited by the change, but he grew rapidly worse and was brought back home where he lingered but a few days. The remains were taken to Louisville Saturday night for burial. Mr. Sambrook came to Livingston many years ago when the Knoxville Branch was being extended. He had a contract in Laurel at the time of the death of President Guthrie when operations were stopped south of Rockcastle River. The Livingston Hotel property was purchased by Mr. Sambrook and successfully run by him. He also had stock in the Livingston Coal Company and afterwards came into full possession of the plant which he ran with profit in connection with his store and other enterprises. He was at one time a conductor on the L & N. road. He was a tireless worker and a strict business man and succeeded where others would fail. His wife and one son, James, compose the family he left.

—The grand jury has found some 90 odd indictments, principally against pistol and liquor men. One distiller has 15 against him. Willis Adams was tried for assault and battery, alleged to have been committed against a negro named Lewis Hiatt last winter in Adams' store. He was acquitted.

—Thomas Hayes made application for a change of venue in the case against him in which he was charged with Ku Kluxing. The indictment charged him with being in the crowd that whipped Josiah Ramsey two years since, who shortly afterwards committed suicide. The evidence introduced was not deemed sufficient to grant a change and the trial was proceeded with and was given to the jury Friday evening.

—A verdict of acquittal was returned next morning. The man Johnson, charged with burglary and caught by Marshal Hamilton at Lexington, was brought here Thursday, indicted and committed to the penitentiary for one year. He was taken to Stanford jail that night. Isaac Jenkins was granted a divorce. John Broughton's suit against the railroad for ejecting him from a train two years since for refusing to pay conductor's fare, was put off on account of the plaintiff being unavoidably detained in the London jail. John Cash was sued by Mrs. Lawrence, his sister, for a cow and some household goods that were supposed to have been left with Mr. Cash by his father when he moved to Indiana in 1863. The case was dismissed. Mat Winsted was tried in four or five liquor cases and fined $25 in each. An appeal was taken and will be carried to the higher court. An indictment has been returned against Willette Vowels for the killing of Willie Livesay five months since. Young Vowels was acquitted at his examining trial.

—Another soap factory burned in Louis ville, the Southern, last week.

—Rev. L. Surber preached at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

—James L. Hamilton spent Sunday in Lancaster. He seems pleased with his new position as mail agent.

—A nice shower last night made our city cheerful and the temperature delightful this, Monday, morning.

—Circuit Court will begin here on next Monday, 22d. The docket will be larger than usual, as many suits have been brought.

—Rev. Joe A. Munday preached a sermon to men only Sunday afternoon, in which he scolded the poor fellows unmercifully about their sins. He has without doubt gone all the gaits.

—One of the best financiers in the county took 10 shares in the building and loan association the other day and gave a check for $1,000, paying all his shares up at the beginning. Building and loan stock will be selling at a premium pretty soon.

—Miss Amanda Anderson writes me that she has accepted the position of principal of the high school at Kingstone, Madison county, and will open school August 9, with a competent assistant and music teacher.

—Wardrobe and laundry to our own meal department and can now make meat to suit any person. It cannot be equaled by any other Mill in this vicinity. We solicit a trial in our door and then department. All the grain in our line will be raised at all Mill, when our agent can be found at all times, who will give the best prices for same. Brand and ship stuff always in stock.

—W. S. POTTS, Sup't.

PERSONAL.

Rev. J. Mack Dunn, of Texas, is visiting his sister in law, Mrs. Fannie Dunn.

Mrs. Nannie Campbell, of Jessamine, is visiting her uncle, Col. J. S. Bled-ge.

Miss Jessie Armstrong, of Harrington, and Nannie Overstreet, of Nicholottesville, are guests of Miss Maggie Dunn.

Miss H. H. Hale, of Knoxville, and Miss Fannie Blair, of Williamson, are visiting Mrs. Robert Blair, in the West End.

Three of the children of Mr. Menifee are, who died last week, are down with the same disease of which he died, and are very ill.

Miss Darling Jones, who has been visiting Mrs. Dr. Hucker, has returned home and there is sadness in an office across the way.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McRoberts, of Limestone, and Miss Mae Ware, of Hopkinsville, have been guests at Mr. Jim M.
McRoberts, Jr.'s.

Miss M. E. V. Hopper, a beauty of the blonde type, from Winchester, is the guest of Miss Lucy Tice, who will give a reception in her honor to-morrow night.

Capt. Frank Harris went to Chillicothe Saturday and returned yesterdav with Mrs. Harris and others who will spend a few days with friends here before leaving for Evansville, Ind. Everybody will regret their departure.

Mr. T. N. Roberts, of Barboursville was here Friday, returning from the Richmond Fair. A pretty little woman was the magnet that drew him from his mountain home, and not the fine display of stock, though he enjoyed that.

Mr. B. P. McAllister has about cloed out his business here to Mr. Mike Elkin and will leave in a few days. Mr. M. has shown himself to be a clever man, a thorough gentleman and a dyed-in-the-wool democrat, qualities that ought to win many a way into public esteem.

Mrs. W. B. Haldeman, of the Center-Journal, and L. J. Frazee, manager of Crab Orchard Springs, were here with two very pretty girls, Misses Haldeman and Merrell, Friday. They started to the Richmond fair, but missed the train. The gentlemen honored us with a pleasant call.

LOCAL MATTERS.

OLIVER called Plows and extra st Hucker & Bright's.

DOUBLE WEDDING.—Mr. Cy Butt and Miss Sallie Baker, Mr. Lincoln Price and Miss Alice Preston were married at Mrs.
Sallie Baker's, in this county, a few days ago.

H. C. Johnson's boot and shoe shop continues to grow in public favor and he is getting all the work he can do. His prices are low and his work first-class are the reasons for it.

FOR RENT.—The Will Anderson place, a half mile from the court-house in Stanford, on the Somerset pike. Possession given at-once. For further particulars call at the place. G. R. Hardin.

The directors of the Lincoln County Stock Fair have declared a dividend of $1 on each share of $10 and Treasurer J. H.
Baughman was distributing checks yesterday. This is doing first-rate considering all the disadvantages under which the directors labored and shows what can be done if we go at the business on a larger scale next year.

An officer of the Methodist church tells us that the congregation was greatly annoyed Sunday night by the misbehavior of some thoughtless boys in the vestibule. A repetition of the act will not only cause a prosecution before the police court, but the publication of each offender's name in this paper. Boys, be gentlemen, and either stay away from church or go inside and be have yourselves.

The second section of a freight train ran into the first at Crab Orchard Thursday night, badly injuring an engine and two cars. The cause of the accident was the failure of the conductor of the first section to send his flagman the proper distance when he stopped at the station and the further fact that the engineer of the second section was running faster than the rules allowed. No one has been put off for it. Jim Duddar was captain of section 1; Capt. J. H. Bailey and Engineer Fred Bar-gees had No. 2.

THE Cincinnati Southern's Niagara excursion leaves Jellico on Day on the 23d Pore for round trip $8.50; $1 extra to Toronto.

KILLED.—Geo. Hickey, a railroad laborer, was killed at Jellico yesterday morning by being crushed between an engine and coal car.

The trial of Wallace Carpenter for the murder of his father has been set for the 3d week of the Pulaski Circuit Court, which will be October 17th.

A DAUGHTER, their third child, has dissolved the union of Mr. and Mrs. G. B.
Cooper. It is a broucher and has been named Orrie, for Mrs. James P. Buley.

GEORGE SHAW, of Louisville, a brakeman on the L. & N., fell from a freight train at Gravel Switch Sunday night and was hurt so badly internally that it is thought he will die.

GAS.—Mr. M. F. Huie tells us that Hutherford & Co., boring for water at the new Proctor Mines, near Jellico, struck gas in considerable volume Saturday and in consequence a big boom is on down there.

ES. 1860.—An attendant from the Lexington Lunatic Asylum came to Mr. Chase.
Dunn's Saturday night in search of his son, W.
G. Dunn, who escaped from the asylum several days before and has not since been heard from.

A SONNER couple, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sallee, who have been married 12 years have just had their household "brightened" by the arrival of a son and heir. Certain Somerset people can perceive this and take fresh courage.

THE new bank at Somerset, which will be known as the People's, has elected H. A.
Newell, president, G. A. Sallee, vice president, like Phillips, cashier and John Loman teller. The capital is $75,000 and business will begin October 1.

THIEF.—John Johnson, unfastened when brought to trial at Mt. Vernon and was given one year in the penitentiary. Pending the adjournment of the court he was lodged in jail here for safe keeping till the sheriff can take him thence.

IN ORDER to lay in a stock of wheat for the new mill, the Stanford Roller Mills has increased its capital stock to $100,000.
The establishment is now paying 65 cents a bushel and getting all it wants. Things are decidedly lively around it at present and people are beginning to realize what a big thing it is for Stanford.

THE Governor's Ball at Crab Orchard Springs will occur Friday night, 26th. Goy Knott and a large party from Frankfort will be there and the occasion promises to eclipse the former distinguished evening of the kind at this great resort. The Governor elect, Simon Bullivar Buckner, with Merrell, the Baby, are also expected to be present.

JAILER.—At an early hour Friday morning an officer arrested C. H. Bishop and E.
S. Hood, at Hustonville, for violating the prohibition law. They were tried at once before Justice Tuttle, when Bishop was acquitted, but the proof being dead against Hood in three cases, he was fined the full extent of the law, $150. He was given all day to make a bond for the amount, but none of his friends would come to his rescue and at noon Saturday Deputy Jim Cook delivered him to Jailer Owens and the heavy doors of the prison shut him from the world and its temptations to violate the law. This is pretty severe medicine, but we hope it will be given to every man caught in the nefarious business. If Mr. Hood has not lost all self respect he must feel very keenly the disgrace he has brought on himself. It is to be hoped that the example will deter others from following in his footsteps.

PERHAPS FATAL ACCIDENT.—Friday morning about 3 o'clock as Conductor Tom Hutchison was coming South with an extra freight he saw a man lying alongside the track near Broomfield. Stopping the train it is supposed that during the night he got up to go to the smoke to enjoy a cigar and on returning missed his footing and fell.
His wife did not miss him till after passing Jellico when second conductor came around for their tickets. They referred him to the old man, but a search of the train failed to reveal him and their fare was demanded and paid. In the meantime the man had been found as stated and telegraphic enquiry soon established his identity.
His daughter returned to his bedside and his son, Mr. J. A. McCollum, of Knoxville, came on and is now with him at the Commercial Hotel. The latter tells us that his father is about 72 years old and feeble and was forced to use a staff in walking. He thinks that the fall was due to dizziness and his unsteady footsteps.
There is no abrasion on his body but the general concussion seems to have produced paralysis. He is still unconscious and likely to die at any time. We learn that he is a member of the Presbyterian church, a director in a local bank and stands highly in the esteem of the community in which he lives.

IT is still as dry as a bone and as hot as hades. A little rain fell Sunday night, which cooled the air some, but was insufficient to do much good to the parched earth.

DEATHS.

J. H. Gindler, an old citizen of Simerset, is dead.

M. C. Thurman received a telegram yesterday afternoon conveying the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Kate Dennis, wife of Judge J. B. Dennis, at Marshall, Mo., of heart trouble. Mrs. Dennis formerly lived in Danville and afterwards in Stanford, in both of which places she has many friends. She was about 45 years of age and leaves one child, Mrs. A. S. Glear, of Kansas City.—Danville Advocate.

RELIGIOUS.

Elder Milton Elliott dedicated a Corinthian church at Woodbine Sunday.

The committee has selected St. Louis for the next meeting place of the Methodist General conference in 1890.

The fourth Thursday in May, 1887, is the day selected for the Northern and Southern Presbyterian celebration at Philadelphian.

The Kentucky Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, will hold its annual session at the Scott street Methodist church in Covington, beginning on the 11th of next month. The body is composed of about 175 members.

Will Barnes is holding a meeting in Kewanee and the Louisville Times hopes that his efforts will be as beneficial as last year as were his wonderful father's in Breastitt, where he preached the gospel of love and forbearance. Thousands flocked to hear him and thousands embraced his faith.
Enemies became brothers, peace spread her wings where strife and contention had been, drunkenness gave place to sobriety and to-day Breastitt county is a model community.

LAND STOCK AND CROP.

A few head of 150 head cattle sold at Bowling Green at $125.

A K. Denny sold to Abe Coleman, of Mercer, a fine bay gelding for $250.

The fall meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club will begin Monday, September 19th and continue six days.

J. M. Board, of Mercer, had 24 of a lot of 140 hogs that he had bought at 40 cents to die in a few minutes from the excessive heat of last week.

A law suit in Illinois over a $2.00 hog has been going on 42 years and has cost $7,000.

It is estimated that nearly $45,000 has been realized for the blackberry crop by the people of Pulaski county this year. Brinkley, Cason & Co. have bought 16 head of mules. They are paying $80 to $120 per head.—[Somerset Reporter.]

Rowena Webb Russell, R. C. Warren's fancy walking mare, took the premium over 13 others at Richmond, including a horse that won last year at Lexington, Paris and Sharpsburg. The mare is named for a precinct in Russell county, which gave Dick a big majority.

There has been a big wheat crop, a large production of oats, and a heavy yield of barley; there is a large surplus of corn; therefore the people of the United States will not starve even should there be a deficiency of fifty per cent. in the corn crop which is not probable.

Mr. W. N. Potts, late of this place, is keeping up his reputation as Superintendent of the Stanford Roller Mills. A specimen of his flour, made into bread, which took the premium at the Stanford fair, has been sent to this office and is as fine as was ever seen.—[Richmond Register.]

Ire, Hudson & Co., sold to Martin, Thompson & Co., of New Orleans, 40 extra fine mares, 10 extra family riding horses, 4 cows and calves, 1 yearling heifer, 5 yearling steers, about 20 head hogs, a two-horse wagon, household and kitchen furniture, &c.

THURS.—All day, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., over amount credit of 90 days with 6 per cent. per year on negotiable notes payable in bank.

DR. J. K. VANARSDALE.
J. F. GOVER,
